

The Citations – Brentwood, California

This Blues-Rockin' quartet has a sound rooted deeply in the Blues with a bit of Classic Rock and Roll mixed in for flavor. The four members of the band put out a high energy and high quality sound described by Chris Smith of the Russian River Blues Society as “a rockin’ blues explosion!” The band has developed a loyal following since their formation in 2008 due to the versatility of styles and commitment to keeping the Blues alive.

The Citations music consists of an ever-growing list of original songs, extended jams and covers by such artist as BB King, Stevie Ray Vaughn, Eric Clapton, Buddy Guy and Creedence Clearwater Revival to name a few. They put their heart and soul into every note they play.

The best music and greatest performances come from artists who have lived some life, traveled many miles and paid their dues. When you hear and see this band, you know you’re experiencing something original and that each member is putting it all on the line!

Not only are they a powerful act, they are dedicated professionals, known to show up on time and work hard to give everyone in attendance the best time possible. They have entertained in a variety of situations that include performing for thousands at festivals and corporate events as well for a few dozen at local haunts and private parties.

The Citations always strive to provide a great time for all that attend, they look forward to entertaining at your next event!
